

Simplify your retirement plan notice process

As a plan administrator, you have a responsibility to send certain notices about your retirement plan to your employees every year. This can result in tedious periods of printing notices, stuffing envelopes and running to the post office.

Notice delivery services from Capital Group, home of American Funds, make it easy to send disclosure documents and notices to participants, helping you meet your fiduciary responsibility while saving you time and effort – no more endless printing or stuffing envelopes.

It's one more way that Capital Group simplifies plan administration for RecordkeeperDirect.

Notice delivery at a glance

- Online access: Send and review notices by signing into the plan administrator website, then clicking Plan Notices under the Administration tab.*
- Requirements: You will need to provide a mailing list and the notice you want to deliver.
- Cost: A flat fee of $2.00 per document mailed, billed on your quarterly recordkeeping invoice.
- Delivery: After a notice is submitted, it will be mailed within four business days.

* Designated plan sponsor contacts and TPAs can send and review notices; other plan contacts, including the financial professional, can only view notice history.

See the following page for a step-by-step overview ➡
