Doug Turley is a Senior Vice President and Investment Counselor for Capital Group Private Client Services. He works directly with high net worth individuals and families to create customized plans for protecting and growing their wealth, often across multiple generations. Doug also helps nonprofit foundations and endowments to pursue their long-term financial objectives through effective planning and investment management.

Doug joined our organization in 1998 with 16 years of banking experience. Prior to that, he spent six years with Banco Nacional de Mexico, S.A. (Banamex) as general manager of the Los Angeles Agency. He was also with First Interstate Bank for 10 years. Doug earned an MBA in finance from Brigham Young University and a BA in accounting and Spanish.

He is founder of the La Cañada Sports Association, a board member of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Pasadena, a board member of the Los Angeles Chapter of the BYU Management Society, and on the Board of Governors of Operation Underground Railroad.

Doug is based in our Los Angeles office.
