Pat Janco-Tupper and Becky Creavin are Senior Vice Presidents and Investment Counselors at Capital Group Private Client Services. Pat and Becky work directly with high net worth individuals and families to create customized plans for protecting and growing their wealth, often across multiple generations. They also help nonprofit foundations and endowments to pursue their long-term financial objectives through effective planning and investment management.

For more than 25 years, Pat and Becky have offered comprehensive wealth management services to prominent families in the New York metropolitan area. Prior to joining our company, Pat and Becky worked at Wells Fargo Private Bank, Deutsche Bank Private Bank and Citi Private Bank.

Pat received a BA from Fairfield University. Becky received an MBA from NYU Stern and a BS from Duke University. They are affiliated with several not-for-profits, including the Nassau County Museum of Art, Cold Spring Harbor Labs, Island Harvest, North Shore Family Guidance and WEDLI.

Pat and Becky are based in our New York office.
