Ralph Heckert is a Senior Vice President and Investment Counselor for Capital Group Private Client Services focusing on family offices, their advisors, consultants and intermediary relationships with global private banks.

Prior to joining Capital in 2002, he spent 10 years with Bernstein Investment Research & Management, most recently as a senior vice president and managing director. He founded the southern region for Bernstein in Palm Beach and Miami. Prior to that, Ralph spent six years with Smith Barney as a managing director in corporate finance. He also served as president of Smith Barney Pension Advisors and was a director of CIGNA alternative and private equity investments.

Ralph earned an MBA and a BS from the University of Connecticut. He is based in our Los Angeles office.
