Ryan Sterling is a Senior Vice President and Investment Counselor for Capital Group Private Client Services. Ryan works directly with high net worth individuals and families to create customized plans for protecting and growing their wealth, often across multiple generations. He also helps nonprofit foundations and endowments to pursue their long-term financial objectives through effective planning and investment management.

Prior to joining Capital in 2015, Ryan was a Vice President of Wealth and Portfolio Advisory at BBR Partners, a New York based multi-family office, working with high net worth individuals and families. Prior to that, he was a Private Wealth Advisor at Goldman Sachs in New York, working with high net worth individuals, families and select foundations and endowments. He also worked in the Private Client division at AllianceBernstein.

He earned his BA in Economics from Carleton College, and an MBA with a specialization in Investment Management from the Owen Graduate School of Management at Vanderbilt University. He is also a CFA® charterholder and is a member of the New York Society of Security Analysts (NYSSA).

Ryan is based in our New York office.
