Sam Dashiell is a Senior Vice President and Investment Counselor for Capital Group Private Client Services. Sam works directly with high net worth individuals and families to create customized plans for protecting and growing their wealth, often across multiple generations. He also helps nonprofit foundations and endowments to pursue their long-term financial objectives through effective planning and investment management.

Prior to joining our organization, he sold businesses and owned a commercial and investment real estate company where he provided investment counsel and handled the brokerage of commercial and investment properties.

Sam holds an interdisciplinary BA degree in communications, legal institutions, economics and government from American University and is a Certified Commercial Investment Member. He is currently involved in several Palm Beach organizations including the Palm Beach Civic Association, Opportunity, Inc., Preservation Foundation of Palm Beach and Catholic Charities.

Sam is based in our Atlanta office.
