Wayne Feinstein is a Senior Vice President and Investment Counselor for Capital Group Private Client Services. He works directly with high net worth individuals and families to create customized plans for protecting and growing their wealth, often across multiple generations. Wayne also helps nonprofit foundations and endowments to pursue their long-term financial objectives through effective planning and investment management.

Prior to joining our organization in 2001, he was CEO of GrantConnect. Wayne also served 18 years as CEO of various Jewish Community Federations in San Francisco, Los Angeles and Detroit. He earned an MA from Hebrew Union College, a BA from Colgate University, a professional designation in financial planning from the University of California at Berkeley and holds the Series 65 license.

Wayne is a founding board member and current Board Chair of the Gastric Cancer Foundation, the UC Berkeley School of Social Welfare and The Arthur Szyk Society. He is based in our San Francisco office.
