Xavier Peoples is a Senior Vice President and Investment Counselor for Capital Group Private Client Services. Xavier works directly with high net worth individuals and families to create customized plans for protecting and growing their wealth, often across multiple generations. He also helps nonprofit foundations and endowments to pursue their long-term financial objectives through effective planning and investment management.

Before joining our organization, Xavier served as a private client associate at US Trust, where he was responsible for building and managing wealth advisory relationships with high net worth clients. Prior to that, he was a regional finance manager for Zurich North America, a senior business credit analyst for Union Bank and a financial planner for Wells Fargo.

Xavier holds a bachelor's degree in finance and financial management from the University of West Georgia, where he also played basketball. He has been a recipient of the Black Enterprise Modern Man Award and was named to the Atlanta Voice Top 50 under 50.

Xavier lives with his wife and three children in Atlanta, where he enjoys camping, hiking and coaching basketball.

Xavier is based in our Atlanta office.
